

COMMITTEE VOLUNTEER APPLICATION

We need your talents and skills! Being a member driven association means we need our members to guide the future of the association. This is your opportunity to help bring the best programs and services to your association, keep up-to-date on issues that directly affect your business, network and develop leadership skills. We appreciate all our REALTOR® and Affiliate volunteers!

Opportunities to volunteer at SMDRA. It's good for you, for us, and for your business.

Affiliate Advisory Committee

Plan mutually beneficial networking programs for REALTOR® and Affiliate members, addresses affiliate issues to the Board of Directors, promotes and encourages affiliate participation in the Corporate Partnerships Program, and works to increase the Association's Affiliate Membership.

Candidate Interview Committee

Conduct candidate interviews for special districts, school boards, city, town, village, AND county government elections within Association jurisdiction. This committee shall interview to ascertain that candidate's position on REALTOR® issues. Volunteer applications are reviewed in October.

Charities & Community Involvement Committee

Dedicated to supporting programs for non-profit organizations with housing related endeavors to raise the quality of home life for individuals and families in our community through charitable donations and fundraising events.

Inclusion, Diversity, and Equality Committee

Dedicated to the education and support of a diverse SMDRA membership in turn fostering leadership capability and giving voice to the commonality within its membership and communities.

Diamond Circle Awards Committee

Plan and raise funds for the SMDRA Top Producers Awards event that celebrates the most successful members of the Denver REALTOR® community.

Education Advisory Committee

Identify professional development topics, classes, events and innovative programs which would be of value to the members of SMDRA and the Denver real estate community. Volunteer applications are reviewed in October each year.

Government Affairs Committee

Identifies and studies issues of concern to the real estate industry and develops policy positions for consideration by the Board of Directors. The committee ensures that SMDRA works with elected officials and community leaders to keep the real estate market and industry healthy. Volunteer applications are reviewed in October.

Inaugural Advisory Committee

Plan, organize and execute the annual Board of Directors installation Event. Volunteers are appointed by chair of the committee.

Leadership Academy Advisory Committee

Develop and implement the SMDRA Leadership Academy program to find, train, and develop potential leaders for the Association. The committee is made up of past Academy Graduates.

Friday Fuze Committee

Recruit and train new Emcees. Present proposals to increase attendance, bring clarification to policies and/or increase efficiency of the marketing session.

RPAC Fundraising Committee

Encourage and support SMDRA's RPAC participation amongst membership. RPAC enables REALTOR® to support candidates that support the issues that are important to their profession and livelihood.

Statistics Committee

Interpret statistical data to improve members' success through education and by empowering SMDRA members to be market experts.

Young Professionals Network Group

Plan mutually beneficial networking events for REALTOR® and Affiliate members under the age of 40, in hopes of helping them excel in their real estate career.

SMDRA's fiscal and committee year runs October 1 through September 30.

Applications are reviewed each September/October. Some committees are open to new volunteers throughout the year.
