What if Colorado suddenly became a state hostile to transacting real estate?

CAR'S GOVERNMENT AFFAIRS DIVISION:

- Works at the local, state, and federal levels to help protect homeowners, the real estate industry, and your business.
- Builds relationships with elected legislative and regulatory bodies as well as community leaders.
- Ensures decision makers understand important issues within the industry.
- Actively monitors and promotes good public policy that builds stronger communities, preserves our environment, improves real estate practices, and ensures economic vitality.

Free, accurate real estate market reports that help YOU establish yourself as the expert in your area.

Our Statistics Program closely monitors and analyzes trends in the state and local real estate industry.

- Interactive Map of Colorado with Stats by County
- State Housing Statistics
- Real Estate Snapshot & Foreclosure Data

ECONOMIC IMPACT ANALYSIS & REPORTS

CAR has joined a coalition to facilitate unbiased, third-party economic impact analysis related to policy and the economy. Studies on topics such as limited growth initiatives, water, and legalized marijuana will be made available to CAR members.

A call to a real estate lawyer costs an average of $300 per hour. In just one hotline call, you can offset your CAR Dues.

The REALTORS® Legal Hotline (303-785-7171) is available Monday–Friday from 9am–12pm and 1pm–4pm. This service provides CAR members with direct access to a qualified attorney who can offer information on real estate law, Real Estate Commission Regulations, and related matters.

Additional legal resources include classes, articles, and Legal Bites videos on risk management topics.

Despite the best efforts of well-intentioned REALTORS®, disagreements still occur.

The Colorado Association of REALTORS® provides several services to help resolve disputes between and against REALTORS®. Litigation to resolve disputes can be extremely slow, expensive, and intimidating. A much less expensive and more efficient option is CAR's Arbitration and Mediation services.

Anyone with an ethics complaint against a REALTOR® may file a complaint with CAR and have their case reviewed by a Grievance Committee.
