SCOTT PETERSON
GENERAL COUNSEL
COLORADO ASSOCIATION OF REALTORS®

Scott is an experienced real estate and business professional with an extensive background representing individuals and companies on a broad range of matters. He currently serves as General Counsel for the Colorado Association of REALTORS® (CAR), the state's largest real estate trade association. CAR is dedicated to serving more than 27,000 REALTOR members and 31 local associations statewide.

As General Counsel, Scott is responsible for advising the CAR Board of Directors, Leadership Council and CAR Staff on legal matters related to the Association's business. In addition, he provides legal support and education directly to CAR members and the state's local REALTOR® associations through the CAR Legal Hotline and education events. Finally, Scott advocates for the Association and REALTOR® interests in legal matters involving third-parties such as vendors, contractors, and state regulatory agencies.

• SESSION INFORMATION

Join CAR General Counsel, Scott Peterson for his most in-demand class as he navigates the legal and regulatory considerations impacting REALTORS® in 2023. REALTORS® who attend the training with attendance verification will receive two continuing education credits.
